

Yulii Shtel

Junior Front-end Developer

About

My name is Yulii, and I'm a Front-end developer that enjoys creating things that live on the web. I'm from Ukraine, and currently studying and working on a few personal Web development projects.

I've switched from being an experienced Marketing/Sales Manager in the IT industry to a creative Software Engineer, willing to build and create fascinating tech. You can check my work by following this link.
